Healthy snack delivery in Singapore

We all know how challenging it is to stay healthy when junk food is just that much easier to reach for, especially when the midday munchies hit. Healthy snacks also have a reputation for being less tasty and appealing than their processed counterparts, so nine times out of 10, the potato chips stay winning. Thankfully, there are a handful of healthy snack delivery services in Singapore that are stepping in to set us on the right path with tasty, wallet-friendly options delivered to your doorstep.

No more convenience store runs in the sweltering hot sun, or impulse buy decisions at the supermarket—these healthy snack delivery companies in Singapore are offering curated selections for all your snacking needs. Plus, many of these brands offer subscriptions or gift box options, if you're thinking of sharing them with your loved ones.

Satisfy your sweet tooth with Plucked.sg's range of freeze-dried fruits. The local snack start-up offers a selection of different freeze-dried fruits, from strawberries to apples, and even durian. They're super convenient—no more having to store your fresh fruit in the crowded office fridge, or deal with sticky fingers after snacking. Plucked.sg's range comes in handy, resealable packets, so you can keep them at your desk.

The special freeze-drying technology used by Plucked.sg ensures that all the nutrients from the fruits are locked in, but it also imparts a crunch to each piece that's super addictive. All flavours are vegan, gluten-free, preservative-free and soy-free, so they're great for everyone, even for folks with special dietary needs.

A pack typically costs $4 for 15g, but we recommend buying in bulk because you get free delivery when you spend above $20. They also sell snack boxes you can keep or gift, where you get six of a particular flavour, or a mix of different flavours, from $30.60.

3. 2NütGuys

If you know a new mom, send them a 2NütGuys bundle as a healthy snack care package! The brand is known as a pioneer in creating lactation nut butters and nut snacks, setting themselves apart from the usual lactation cookies. Their signature Mummy's Nutmond Butter is made with natural lactogenic ingredients that can aid breast milk production, including almonds, cold pressed almond oil, organic chia seeds, flaxseed meal, and brewer's yeast. These are high in protein and fibre, and contain no added salt or sugar! It's great to spread on toast, eat with fruits and overnight oats, or on crackers for a quick snack.

Get your hands on a jar of Mummy's Nutmond Butter in the form of their Best of 3 Worlds pack, priced at $88.90. This comes with a 220g jar of butter, as well as a 450ml bottle of Roasted Almond Milk, a sugarless almond milk beverage that, similarly, helps boost lactation. Finally, the bundle also includes two 135g packs of Mummy's Walnuts, a savoury snack where walnuts are dusted with the likes of fennel powder, garlic, and other spices. Aside from the aforementioned bundle, you can also get other sets and snacks from the brand, including gelato and granola. Delivery is free when you spend above $100.

You get to pick from a variety of 40-odd different nuts, crackers, chips and other nutritious bites—all so you can snack guilt-free. Boxgreen fans praise the weekly delivery option, so they never have to worry about stocking their pantries anymore. Delivery is free for the subscription boxes, but if you're ordering other items off the site, a minimum order of $30 is needed for free delivery.
